HARRISON AND BRISTOW AT GREAT MEETING IN CLARKE COUNTY.

OHIO GREENBACKERS INDORE DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

Republican Majority in Maine Over 14,000.

Carl Schurz in the Indiana Campaign.

Carl Schurz on the Prospects in Ohio.

Jeffersonville, Ind., September 12.—The New York Herald stated that Hon. Carl Schurz, in writing to a friend in Washington, Ohio, had said that in Ohio the German vote was arrayed against the Republicans, and whether Hayes would carry the State, a friend of the ex-Senator telegraphed to him, to-day, about the Sun's story, asking for the facts, and the privilege of making his reply public. The following is Mr. Schurz's reply:

"I wrote you this letter, and entertain no such opinion. I am sure that the surest way to do this as you please. C. SCHURZ."

This positive denial of the Sun story and expression of belief that Ohio is sure for Hayes, gives great satisfaction to the Republicans here.

General Harrison and Ex-Senator Bristow at Jeffersonville—An Immense Gathering.

Jeffersonville, Ind., September 12.—Harrison's meeting was the largest ever held in Clark County, fully eight thousand being on the grounds. When the train arrived, bringing the General, it was met at the depot by an escort of Hayes and Wheeler Guards, numbering two hundred, and a vast concourse of citizens. His presence was the signal for riotous cheering and waving of flags.

After Harrison had ceased speaking, Secretary Bristow called for a resolution, and responded in magnificent style, eliciting the loudest applause when he had concluded the crowd would not disperse, but demanded a speech from Undergrad, of Ohio, who responded in a most appropriate manner, entering a magnificent speech. It has been a glorious day for Clark County.

Harrison and Bristow at New Albany, Laet Night.

New Albany, Ind., September 12.—General Harrison arrived here on the 6 o'clock train, and was met at the depot by an escort numbering three hundred, and escorted to the hotel, where old Tippecanoe stopped in 1840. The people gathered in and about the hotel, and with shouts, huzzas, and the playing of "John Bull," and other patriotic music, they welcomed the General.

From the hotel the General proceeded to the depot, where he was met by a large number of citizens, and then to the hotel, where he was met by a large number of citizens, and then to the hotel, where he was met by a large number of citizens.

Carl Schurz in the Indiana Campaign.

Indianapolis, September 12.—When Carl Schurz was invited to take part in the canvass in this State, it was with the understanding that he would speak in German, and his appointments were made with that understanding. The Democratic managers sought to break the force of his appeals to the Germans by drawing him into a joint canvass with Dan Voorhees, in which case he would be obliged to speak in English.

The Reformer Scooby at Greensburg.

Greensburg, Ind., September 12.—John S. Scooby, Democratic candidate for Governor, here, today, addressed a crowd of two hundred, most of whom were Republicans, at the Court-house. He was the person whose private record has been so well utilized in the canvass, and his whole time to the subject of the Indiana National Convention. At an early hour he moved to Washington, Ohio, near Columbus, where he taught school. He moved to Lafayette in 1850, and connected with Moses Fowler, of this city, in the dry goods trade. He has been actively engaged in various business enterprises here ever since. He was proprietor of the Lafayette Journal and prominent in connection with the agricultural college, which bears his name and located here, to which he had donated $150,000. He was for a series of years associated with the Standard Oil Co. in business there. He was unmarried.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

THE WAR IN THE EAST.

REFUSE OF THE TURKS—TCHERNAYEFF AND HORVATOVICH JOIN FORCES.

BELOGRADE, September 12.—Official dispatches say there was severe fighting, Sunday and Monday, between Deligrad and Alexinz, in consequence of the Turks attempting to throw a bridge across the Morava. They were unsuccessful.

The Serbian garrison at Alexinz numbers only six thousand four hundred men. Horvatic, with twelve thousand men, has retired from Gramada, and joined Tchernayeff at Deligrad. Yesterday they gained the Turkish rear, south of Durjures, when a combined attack was made on the Turks by the two Generals. Fighting ceased at nightfall, without a decisive result, and was renewed to-day.

THE PORT'S ULTIMATUM RECEIVED IN BELGRADE.

London, September 12.—The Standard's dispatch from Belgrade says the answer of Turkey, citing the conditions of peace, has been received but not yet been officially communicated. Russia will not permit Serbia to accept Turkey's terms. The question now is, when will Russia throw off the mask and openly prosecute the war that she is actually waging, while pretending to be merely Serbia's friend?

RUSSIA'S REPLY TO REPRESENTATIONS IN FAVOR OF THE STANDARD'S VIENNA SPECIAL SAYS THE DIPLOMATIC COMMISSION THAT MARSHAL MANTUEFF SENT ON A MISSION TO WARSAW TO PERSUADE RUSSIA TO CHECK THE WARLIKE ASPIRATIONS OF HER PEOPLE, HAS RECEIVED FINE GORTSCHAKOFF'S REPLY TO GERMANY, LAYING DOWN THE CONDITIONS UNDER WHICH RUSSIA WILL UPHOLD THE PACE UNDER THE PRESENT TRYING CIRCUMSTANCES.

THE BELGIAN ATROCITIES.

The Turkish Government has promised to distribute $100,000 among the Bulgarian sufferers.

DEFIANT BASHI-BAZOOKS.

The Times' dispatch from St. Petersburg says the telegraph reports from Philippopolis that Tosun Bey, one of the leaders in the Bulgarian outrages, who has been arrested, has collected a number of Bashis-Bazooks, and defies the Turkish Government to arrest them.

St. Joseph, Mo., September 12.—The Republicans of the Ninth District to-day nominated Ben. F. Loan for Congress.

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

Secretary Chandler and Carl Schurz's Appointment.

Washington, September 12.—The statement that the appointments of Carl Schurz have been withdrawn on the demand of Secretary Chandler has created a great deal of animated discussion in political circles here. It is not definitely known whether the move has the approval of Governor Hayes, but it is generally feared that if he has assented to it the fact will have a tendency to excite the passions of the population ticket. A great deal of anxiety is shown to get at the true inwardness of the matter.

WASHINGTON, September 12.—The President has appointed James S. Beach Postmaster at St. Joseph, Missouri, and signed the commission of Thomas C. Buchanan at Toledo.

THE CAMPAIGN OF 1876.

CROWN POINT, September 11, 1876.

Hon. Carl Schurz spoke at Cheshire Hall, in this place, to-day. The hall was well filled, notwithstanding the very unpleasant and threatening character of the weather, and the fact that a Democratic meeting, with German speakers and Blue-Jeans Williams for attractions, was being held in another part of the town. Hon. D. W. Voorhees, who, it had been expected, would be present to discuss the merits of the campaign, jointly with Mr. Schurz, was confined to his bed by a sudden attack of illness, and did not make his appearance. A large number of the audience assembled in the hall were Germans. Owing to a fall which he lately suffered, and which has slightly disabled him, Mr. Schurz was compelled to sit down while speaking. At the end of three-quarters of an hour, feeling exhausted, he was compelled to bring his remarks to a conclusion. He spoke as follows:

Speech of Hon. Carl Schurz.

FELLOW-CITIZENS—It was announced here this morning that you had consented to an address which would not be here at all. The fact is that on Sunday night I had a fall which injured me in several places. It was so exceedingly difficult for me to travel, and it is now very painful for me to speak, so that I do not know whether it will be worth your while to attend. If I am to do so I wish that the audience would maintain the most perfect quiet, for it is very difficult for me to speak in a louder tone of voice than I am doing now, and I would be obliged, if permitted, inasmuch as I can with many of you keep upright, to sit down in addressing you.

I understand it was expected that Mr. Voorhees would discuss the political issues of the day in joint debate with me. I do not think it is likely to be so. I have not come here for the purpose of indulging in any flowing phrases of speech, or of sinning the praises of the Republican party, or telling you of the great things that have been done by the party of electing your chiefs and shouting; but I propose, if I am able to do so, to talk sense in a plain-spoken manner.

THE FINANCIAL QUESTION.

Here I am on the soil of Indiana, and it is generally reported that in this State a great variety of questions are being asked, and that I mean the financial question. I shall discuss the financial question first upon its own merits, and then upon its relation to the political party in the Presidential canvass.

My fellow-citizens, you all are aware that times are hard; that business is stagnant; that a great many men are on the verge of bankruptcy; that a great many of our factories and mills are idle; that there are thousands of laborers in the country without work; that there is great distress, and we look forward to winter when we shall have to feed a great many people.

HARD TIMES.

As a sick person who does not know exactly what the matter is, his complaint is, if he is in any way credulous, is very curious. In the course of my cure, who, with dancing advertisements, tell the world that they are able, in a very simple way, to cure every ailment, and every one of these quack doctors also when they labor under the pressure of hard times. They are apt then to fall into the hands of political quacks and impostors, who represent to them that they have found some secret remedy by which they can cure all the ills of the body and mind.

Suffering as we do under very grievous complaints, the first thing necessary for us is to know the truth; to have told us the cause of our own condition and of the cause of those things which weigh so heavily upon us. In that respect the great deception of the times is that we have had undoubtedly heard, and probably it has been dinned into your ears with a great deal of persistence, that the cause of our distress is the business, the stagnation of our industry, and the fall in the price of our products.

RAILROAD CROSSING FATALITY.

Coroner Maley finished, yesterday, an inquest on the body of George F. Snyder, killed last Friday night in the collision between the "dummy" and the express locomotive on the Little Miami Railroad, at the crossing near Delta Station.

Lookout, testified that he was a clerk on the Little Miami freight depot, between the depot and twenty-five miles west of it, on Thursday night, he was standing on the platform of the depot, looking for the dummy. He saw the dummy, and he saw the locomotive, and he saw the collision.

The salaried Mayor of Newport, Colonel Albert S. Boyd, has been appointed to the position of Executive Officer of the Democratic Executive Committee of this county.

From the condition of affairs last night, it seems likely that the delegates to the Democratic Convention from the Second District of Newport may find some difficulty in obtaining recognition from the Convention.
